

W01 Quiz: Concept Fluency

Due Apr 24 at 10:59pmPoints 12Questions 12Time Limit NoneAllowed Attempts Unlimited

Instructions

Concept fluency quizzes are given during most weeks in an attempt to measure your reading and study comprehension and to increase your concept fluency. Speaking the language of the industry and understanding principles and concepts is an essential part of your individual development. Quizzes are open book, note, and internet, and you may consult with your learning team after attempting the quiz at least once.

Be familiar with the assigned activities and embedded readings in the week to prepare for the quizzes.

You must pass the quiz at 100% in order to get it checked off.
